Wasted time

Buyers have to call to call for basic information and time is wasted talking to the wrong buyer. If you have a 2 bedroom property, don't waste time talking to buyers who need 3 bedrooms.

Overlooked

Buyers drive by without having any idea what's inside and may not want to call for more information.

Your Questions Answered!

Q: How do HomeAdvantageWebSites.com Web sites work?

A: Photos and information about your property are put onto your Web site with your own Web address. You can put the link wherever you advertise your property-print ads, emails, sign in front of your house, brochures, Craigslist...etc.

Q: What if I am a For Sale By Owner and I decide hire a realtor to market my property or I need a price change?

A: Our packages include editing time and we can change contact and other information. We can add realtor information, change prices, attach documents, etc.

Q: What if I already have photos?

A: As long as you are satisfied with the photos and they are in .jpeg format, we can build your site. You would need to send your photos to us on a disc or by email. There is a discount if you have your own photos.
